Lincs Cross Country Vets get fifth in battle with Boston

London rd Louth, was the setting for the last of the four race series, in the Lincs league Cross Country. With Lincoln Wellington , clear leaders. And Nene Valley battling it out with Louth for second place. Wolds Vet's where lying 5th with 118 points Lincoln W (B) fourth with 75 points, and Boston just behind us with 125 points. With three out of the four matches counting. Boston where fielding a strong team . Jose Ferreira taking fifth and Chris Rainbow eighth, Boston where close to overturning W Vets, but with strength in depth, with a strong ten man squad, the vets fought back, with 14th Pete Hutchinson 15th Chris Bromfield 17th Dave Wilson, Dave had an outstanding run , piping his vets team mate Paul Freeman 20th to the last A team spot, and clinching a victory over Boston by 1 point. As Dennis Rainbow for Boston came home 27th, Making Paul's 20th place crucial for Wold Vet's . So a big reminder to us all, the beauty of cross country is, you don't have to make the team to make a difference. And with new vets member Ian Martinson 28th , John Green 32nd, Nick Aisthorpe 43rd, Martin Clark 58th, Bill Ward 67th, and Maurice Foxon 74th , there was a good splattering of Gold and Black in the field. Many thanks to all who supported the Lincs league this year. And for those who may be tempted next year you really will make a difference

Keep on running

Tracey second in Lincs cross country

Despite not fielding a full team in any of the four Ladies races, Wolds vets Tracey Gibson, took second individual vets place. behind the on form Mapplethorpe runner, Janine Stone, who finished first, with 3 wins out of the four races Tracy managed two 3rd's and a 1st. With some gutsy runs, against some of the best lady vets. On the last race of the series ladies team Capitan Barbara Brown, and team mate Katherine Pinchbeck braved the wind rain and mud. with Barbara finishing 15th overall and 6th vet, and Katherine a creditable 30th on her first XC outing.

Six take on the Ferry 5

Six Wolds vets took on the classy Ferry five mile race. In a field of 196, the first home in the black and gold was Andy Garside in 22nd place 30:46, Andy who has been plagued with an injury all season. Looks to be getting back on top form. Another athlete in good form, second home for Wolds was Steve Green. In 31:11 28th place and picking up the 1st male 55 prize. Next home was Martin Willerton with a massive PB of 34:33, knocking over a minuet of his previous best time. Martin is having a purple patch reaping the rewards of his hard training. Jane Morley 68th in 35:04 lifting the female 55 prize. And Scott Gillespie 91st and the human dynamo Susan Green home in 40:44 completed another successful weekend for Wolds vets
